£10 would pay for a memory card for one of the camera traps used to help monitor gorillas released back in the wild.

£25 could pay for the cost of one day's average petrol allowance to fuel a boat on the Mpassa river.

£50 could help purchase tents, sleeping bags and radio handsets used by our overseas staff on poaching patrols

£100 donated by 80 people would pay for a quad bike used when monitoring the reintroduced gorillas, who are now deep in the forest

Boost your donation by 25p of Gift Aid for every £1 you donate.

Gift Aid is reclaimed by the charity from the tax you pay for the current tax year. Your address is needed to identify you as a current UK taxpayer. To qualify for Gift Aid, what you pay in income tax or capital gains tax must at least equal the amount we will claim in the tax year.

Declaration: I am a UK taxpayer and understand that if I pay less Income Tax and/or Capital Gains Tax in the current tax year than the amount of Gift Aid claimed on all my donations it is my responsibility to pay any difference.

To authorise us to claim Gift Aid

Once you have authorised Gift Aid please notify us if you:

- want to cancel this declaration
- change your name or home address
- no longer pay sufficient tax on your income and/or capital gains

We would like to thank you very much for your continued support.

Please return your completed donation form with gift to Freepost RLUL-CXBS-SHGL, The Aspinall Foundation, Aldington Road, Lympe Hythe, Kent CT21 4PD

We are committed to protecting your personal information

When you support us by donating money or taking part in one of our events we may collect and process personal information about you. Depending on your activity, this may include your name, email address, postal address, telephone or mobile number, date of birth, financial details, age, and other personal information required to deliver the service requested.

We review our retention periods for personal information on a regular basis and when there is no purpose to holding your data we will securely destroy it. We are legally required to hold some personal information to fulfil statutory obligations, for example, the collection of Gift Aid or to support certain financial transactions. We will also hold information about your details so that we can respect your preferences for being contacted by us e.g. avoid sending you direct mail if you have previously told us not to do so.

The Aspinall Foundation will not exchange, rent or sell your personal information to other organisations for use by them in their own direct marketing activities. However, where you have given us permission to contact you, we may use external service providers to do this on our behalf. An external service provider may, for example, include a fundraising agency calling on our behalf or a mailing house sending out material by post. Where we use an external service provider to act on our behalf, we will disclose only the personal information necessary to deliver the service and will have a contract in place that requires the provider to comply with our data protection and information security requirements and with the relevant legal regulations.

If we contact you by text, email, phone or letter, we will not contact you again if you ask us not to. We will not contact you to send you information about how you can support The Aspinall Foundation by email or text unless you have given us your prior permission. You can contact us to change your contact preferences by emailing our team on supportercare@aspinallfoundation.org, or by calling 01303 234 147.
